Homestead, Oct. 3—Four leading strikers under arrest were released today on $10,000 bail. O'Donnell is still in jail.

Practical Reciprocity.
TO THE EDITOR OF THE APPEAL:—Every Carsonite believing in Blaine's doctrine of reciprocity should prove his faith by acknowledging the receipt of favors shown this town by Senator Stewart. Counties in Eastern Nevada without a single United States institution are practically unanimous for Stewart's reelection. They know their friend, and reciprocate his efforts in their behalf. Why should "Stewart Institute" Carson with its Mint and Government Building—remain silent in the House when Nevada's sturdy champion should receive their grateful acknowledgment?

In these times of independent action men must take sides and remember that they are men, not mice.
